PLATT'S FORMER FLAME INDICTED

NEW YORK, July 5.—Mae C. Wood, the Omaha woman who sued United States Senator Thomas C. Platt for divorce, was indicted by the Grand Jury today on charges of perjury and forgery.

Miss Wood is charged with having signed Senator Platt's name to a document acknowledging her as his wife. The perjury incident is based on Miss Wood's testimony in the divorce action when she testified that she was married to the Senator at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in 1901.

Miss Wood is at liberty on $5,000 bail. She will be arraigned in court Monday.

Miss Wood's suit alleging marriage and demanding a divorce from Senator Platt was heard before Justice O'Gorman in this city last May. Miss Wood declared that the Senator invited her to come to the Fifth Avenue Hotel in November, 1901, and married her in a room in that hotel. She produced a certificate of the marriage, but the printer of the blank form testified that the form was not printed until three months after the date of the alleged marriage.

Miss Wood also produced a document bearing what purported to be the Senator's signature, acknowledging her as his wife. The Senator denied that he had ever signed it and produced a witness who testified that she had obtained the Senator's signature to a blank sheet of paper, which she gave to Miss Wood.

The Senator paid $10,000 for the return of letters he wrote to Miss Wood.

Justice O'Gorman dismissed Miss Wood's suit and ordered her arrested on the charge of perjury.

MADAME HACKLEY IN TOWN.

Madame Hackley, who has a worldwide reputation as a clairvoyant and business medium, arrived yesterday in Tonopah from New Orleans. She is a gifted woman and has predicted and foretold many events long before happening. Some of her forecasts have been the assassination of McKinley, the election of Roosevelt, etc., etc. She can be found at the Turner Hotel, Room 12, from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

EXPLOSION WRECKS COTTAGE.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 6.—Assassins, seeking to cover their plot under the guise of Fourth of July merry-making, are believed to have caused a mysterious explosion which wrecked the cottage of Mrs. Mary de Mott, at 1917 Division street, at 2 o'clock this morning. The explosion, which came without warning, smashed the windows and shot splinters and broken glass into the arms of Mrs. De Mott. The woman, who is an Italian, is painfully but not fatally injured. The police believe they have a clue to the perpetrators of the outrage.

FORETHOUGHT.

Sick Man—You got that will all ready?

Lawyer—Yes, sir; it's all complete.

Sick Man—Can it be broken easily?

Lawyer—No, sir; it'd cost $1,000 to break it.

Sick Man—Then you tear it right up and make one that can be broken for about $25; I ain't goin' to run them children into a big expense like that.—Toledo Blade.

REVOLUTIONS IN TWO REPUBLICS

BUENOS AYRES, July 6.—Telegraphic communication with Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay, where there is a revolution, is still interrupted, but word has been received from Asuncion at Corrientes that the artillery at the capital mutinied and bombarded the market place. Many women are said to have been killed in this fighting. The foreign representatives at Asuncion are urging the belligerents to abstain from bombarding the city. This news was brought to Corrientes by the captain of a steamship.

WASHINGTON NOTIFIED.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Information has reached the State Department of a proposed revolutionary movement against the Government of Honduras under the leadership of former President Bonilla. No details are given. The governments of Salvador and Guatemala have given directions to prevent any movement of that character taking form in those countries.

Minister Urgade of Honduras, at the direction of his government, talked over the situation with Acting Secretary of State Adele. American interests at Porto Cortez, Honduras, are considerable, and, if necessary, an American war vessel will be sent to that locality. The cruiser Tacoma is at Colon and one or more American warships are in the vicinity of Guantanamo.

MONO LAKE OIL.

The Bridgeport Chronicle-Union says that Rector, Wood, et al., have turned over their Mono Lake oil interests to the Mono Oil Company, the transfer being for 19,200 acres. It is rumored that the Western Oil Company will move their outfit to another location on the island and sink another well, as the one now down has tapped the flow and has been capped until arrangements can be made for transportation of the product.

OSCEOLA DECLARES DIVIDEND.

The directors of the Osceola Consolidated Mining Co. have declared a semi-annual dividend of $2 a share. Six months ago the dividend was passed but six months before that $7 was declared. The Calumet & Hecla Mining Co. owns 22,671 shares of Osceola stock, and will receive $45,342 from the dividend.

STOCK MARKET BECOMES ACTIVE

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, July 6.—The stock market today threw off the lethargy in which it has been found for the last week and sprang into energy and animation. Today's transactions rose to a larger total than for months past. The feature of the day's dealings was large orders from single sources. Bonds were irregular.
